The data do not support the hypothesis that use of the 7-valent PCV is associated with the increasing numbers of S. aureus infections.