

Author instructions: Journal of Hospital Medicine Clinical Guideline Highlights for the Hospitalist

Title: Clinical Guideline {insert the name}

1. A Table 1 should contain the following information:
 - Guideline title:
 - Release date:
 - Prior version(s):
 - Developer:
 - Funding source:
 - Target population:
2. Background: Provide a one paragraph summary of the clinical problem addressed by the guideline
3. Key Recommendations for the Hospitalist
 - a. Provide selected recommendations in a bulleted format, with text below each bullet placing the recommendation in context of the available evidence. Address any relevant benefits or harms related to the recommendation.
4. Critique
 - a. Discuss strengths and limitations of the guideline, including:
 - i. Critique of the methods used in preparing the guideline (composition of panel convened, extent of the literature review, approach to assessing strength of evidence and potential bias in evidence, presence or absence of peer review in development of the guideline)
 - ii. Sources of potential conflict of interest or bias (ex. funding source for guideline)
 - iii. Generalizability of the guideline
5. Areas in need of future study
6. Other resources (with hyperlinks)
7. References (no more than 8)
8. 1200 Words